Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives:

#	Name	Date	Description
1	Charter Offices	Ongoing	Charter Communications arranged a comprehensive training program for all new Broadband Installer/Technician positions enabling acquisition of skills to qualify them for higher level positions. Additionally, System Technicians are provided twice yearly (April and September) study guides and practical assessments to enable self promotion. Jones/NCTI is also paid for and made available to these groups. Supervisors and managers participated in a variety of training programs devised to assist with leadership development and policy administration skills. Offerings provided at various times during this plan year included Your Leadership Journey, Reinforcing for Leadership Success, Leadership Connect, Advanced Leadership Connect, Effective Hiring, Performance Management, Civil Treatment for Managers, and Strategic Leadership (for Directors and above). Charter Communications requires that new employees complete the following training within their first month of employment: Harassment Prevention in the Workplace, Information Security and Privacy, Records and Information Management, Wage and Hour, and Charter's Marketing Privacy Preferences.
2	Charter Offices	Weekly	Weekly postings of all openings in each Charter office for internal candidates to review.
3	Direct Employers Association	Ongoing	Charter Communications is a member of the Direct Employers Association. Through this non-profit network, job vacancies for this unit are distributed to a wide array of recruitment sources, including, but not limited to, education institutions, state workforces agencies, and job bank(s), and organizations that distributes to women, minorities, the disabled, and veterans.
4	Charter Markets	Ongoing	Charter Media, in conjunction with Charter Marketing, have created and disseminated various recruitment television ads in our markets throughout this reporting period. These communications were designed to distribute employment opportunities to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of our opportunities.
